Proposed Change:	1) Add a new field to the Disposition - Archive window called Disposition Cost. This cost field will be available for all assets and will be required before an asset can be archived. The Disposition Cost field will include the following cost categories. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Deactivation - includes characterization, planning, project design, removal of hazardous materials and classified documents and equipment, and reduction of security levels and operations costs ○ Decommissioning - includes decontamination, further characterization, and the first stages of demolition or dismantlement ○ Disposition - includes demolition, entombment, or preparation for reutilization through internal transfer, sale, or conveyance
Justification:	Although the Presidential Memorandum of 06/10/10 titled Disposing of Unneeded Federal Real Estate— Increasing Sales Proceeds, Cutting Operating Costs, and Improving Energy Efficiency has effectively sunsetted, Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Management Procedures Memorandum 2013-02 extended the Real Property Cost Savings initiative. Asset level disposition costs and trends will provide part of the justification for decisions either to dispose or not dispose seemingly underutilized or excess assets. The 2013 Federal Real Property Profile reporting guidance redefined “disposition value.” Changes to the Net Proceeds data element will facilitate annual reporting.
